

Economist
Aurora, Colorado

Study and determine economic and statistical factors that affect the business' practices of processing and underwriting loan applications to develop and implement business and accounting strategies that align with the institution's overall mission, business goals and risk tolerance

Study the economic impact of new public policies, such as proposed legislation, taxes, services, regulations, along with their economic issues and factors that might affect the company's business and products' portfolio

Compile, analyze, and report data to explain economic phenomena and forecast market trends, applying mathematical models and statistical techniques, to assist company's accountants and consultants to make informed decisions, minimize default rates and maintain a healthy portfolio

Assist managers and upper-management at the company to understand how the economy will affect its business, including analysis of issues such as consumer demand and sales, applicant's common business and financing needs, lending requirements and loan readiness

Collaborate with Business Consultant staff to assess client needs and develop recommendations, including action plans, internal TA resources, and referral opportunities regarding the evaluation and underwriting of loan applications

Provide technical assistance to Community Enterprise Development Services finance clients during the processing and underwriting of loan applications, and supporting the loan department

Formulate recommendations, policies, reports, and plans to interpret and solve economic problems and present research findings and strategy proposals to company funders and Executive Director

Bachelor's Degree required

Mail cover letter and resume to: Alexandria Wise, Community Enterprise Development Services, 10660 E Colfax Ave, Suite B, Aurora, CO 80010